

NEW APPOINTMENTS - January 2008

Operations Manager - Pamela Jones

Pamela has been appointed as Part-Time Operations Manager; she will take up the post at the start of February. Pamela is a Pastoral Leader at the Christians Alive Church in Lancaster where she is part-time administrator as well as being "Full Time Mum". She has been a science teacher and does some voluntary work in the primary school that her son attends. One of the principle skills that she brings is the ability to research information and use the results; she has a doctorate from the University of Lancaster.

Administrator - Hazel Brogden

Hazel will become the Part-Time Administrator based at the office in Carnforth. She will start with NISCU on 1st April. Currently she is working for the Philippi Trust in Blackpool where she is Finance Administrator. There she deals with accounts at their head office and with those of branches in other parts of the country. Raised in the Eden valley near Kirkby Stephen she is well informed of the work of NISCU in that area, and worked for Maranatha Ministries there for a number of years. She is a member of St Thomas' Church, Blackpool where she leads a house group.
